Why partner with SPP?

Experience

SPP is a leading player in the Swedish occupational pension and premium income market, with a market share of 15% (Source: Svensk Försäkring). They leverage their extensive experience to create the best possible solutions for their customers.

SPP and Storebrand

SPP is part of the Storebrand Group, a leading Nordic financial group. Storebrand's history dates back to 1767 and today, they are one of the largest private asset managers in the Nordic region, with over NOK 1.3 trillion invested in more than 5,000 companies around the world. SPP and Storebrand are committed to make the world in general, and the financial sector in particular, more sustainable. Their goal is to deliver sustainable solutions tailored to the customer's individual needs, so that customers can receive the best possible pension in a more sustainable world, thus creating value for customers, shareholders, and society.

International scope

SPP has a team of experts dedicated to global mobility and global employee benefit arrangements, including Pooling, Global Underwriting, and Captive programs. Understanding the specific challenges faced by multinational businesses today, SPP collaborates closely with many Swedish multinationals to meet their high standards.

Advice and guidance

SPP offers tailor-made advice and support to help clients understand and maximize their occupational pension benefits, including savings solutions and risk benefits. With smart digital services, they strive to make it as easy as possible for businesses to manage pensions and long-term savings.

Comprehensive employee benefits

SPP provides a health concept that ensures quick access to care and treatment, including cancer care. For example, clients can receive assistance from nurses who book appointments with private specialists and hospitals, even abroad. It also includes digital wellness programs and psychological support.

Sustainability Map

SPP's "Er Hållbarhetskarta" ("Your Sustainability Map") monitors the sustainability (social, environmental, and governance factors) of a company's pension savings. Employers can use SPP's Sustainability Map to raise awareness of what an occupational pension actually contains and enhance the attractiveness of the benefits they provide.
